TOPICS COVERED

1. Introduction to Arbitration Law

- This class is designed to set a base for beginners in arbitration law. In this session, the focus would be to clear the basics and the fundamentals of the arbitration law so that there is ease in understanding case laws and amendments.

2. Recent Developments of Arbitration law in India

- Arbitration law in India is subject to various amendments. Moreover, the interpretation of the sections of the act through case laws keeps changing. This class is specifically designed to discuss the recent amendments and case laws to have a strong understanding of the current position of law.

3. Discussion on the landmark cases of Arbitration law

- While the arbitration law is fairly new, there is still a lot to cover apart from the recent developments. Many old case laws still stand as an authority on various aspects of the arbitration, therefore is quintessential to discuss those in this specialized course.

4. Drafting in Arbitration

- Drafting is one key aspect that should be known to every law student or professional. This course aims to make students and professionals specialize in this subject and drafting is an essential element to it.

5. Current issues, opportunities, and viable solutions in Domestic Arbitration law

- There are many issues in the current regime of Indian arbitration law. In this class, we aim to highlight various issues in the law and attempt to tackle these issues and further explore the new opportunity for making India an Arbitration Hub.
